

Alan is living in a small refugee camp with his family near Gana. They left Liberia, their home country because of the war. A small local organisation has set up a school for the children between 7 and 10 inclusive. Alan and his younger brother are amongst the lucky ones.

their elder sister 12 of age
looks at them with envy

GETTING EDUCATED IN A REFUGEE CAMP

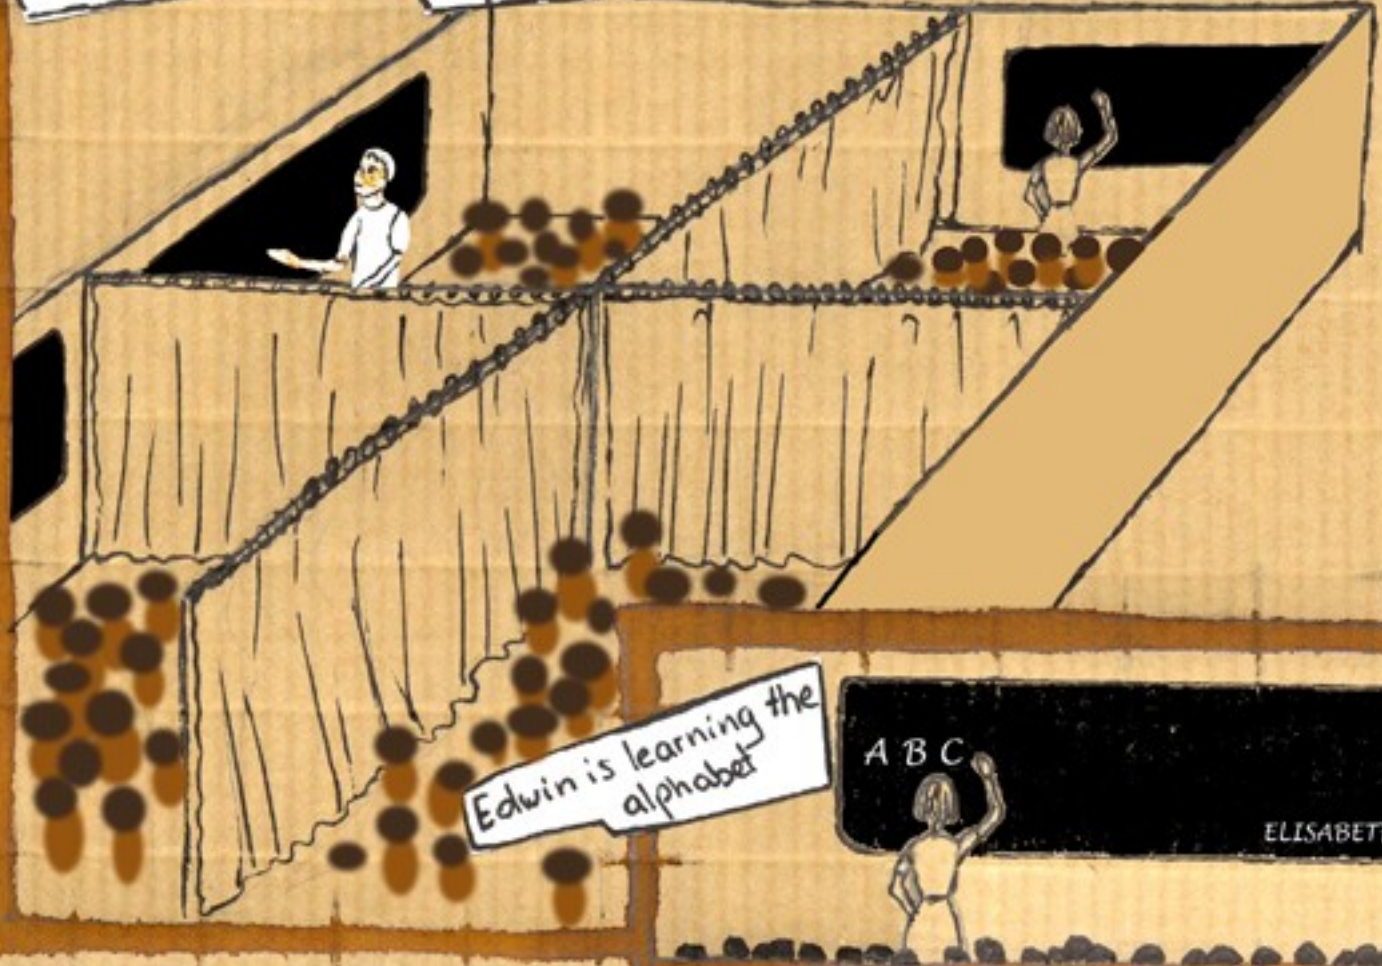

9.00 o'clock

1 small house

separated into 4 rooms

Edwin is learning the alphabet

ABC
ELISABETH

Who knows how to count?

Alan is about to learn how to count

I know sir.

I know sir.

MUSIC LESSON

Effua put...

...the fufu on...

2 hours later...
...BREAK TIME!

1pm: lunch time

... THEN CINDERELLA STARTED TO CRY BECAUSE HER CRUEL MOTHER IN LAW...

back at home

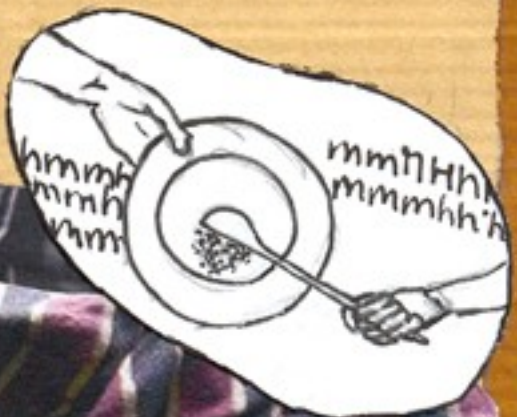

Really? Will you teach me?

I learnt how to count today!

I can teach you the alphabet!

A... B... C... D... E... F

please god, don't let this be the last year at school for me and my friends

hmmh mmh mm

mmh mmh mmh